CAMERON, MILAM COUNTY TEXAS, THURSDAY AUGUST 11, 1960

10 PAGES TODAY

Budget Due For Milam

A proposed $359,000 county budget, almost identical to the 1959-60 budget, will be considered by County Commissioners Court in a public hearing 10 a. m. August 22.

It was based on the same 95-cent per $100 valuation of the present county budget, County Judge Don G. Humble said today.

The estimated serviceable valuation of Milam County is $31 million with no bonded indebtedness.

Biggest budget item was for general fund receipts of $149,470 ($148,688 last year) over estimated disbursements of $87,115, ($88,070 for last year.)

Next largest was the general road and bridge fund, estimated at $130,700 with anticipated disbursements of $130,000.

In the four commissioner precincts, budget estimates, all the same as the current year, were:

PRECINCT 1 - C. S. Raney, $15,295.

PRECINCT 2 - L. C. McKinney, $75,310.

PRECINCT 3 - Byron Neal, $73,210.

PRECINCT 4 - R. H. McCasland, $53,294.

By precinct, 60 percent of the road and bridge fund goes to Precincts 2 and 3, centered by Cameron and Rockdale. Precinct 1 draws 10 percent of the total while Precinct 4 gets 22 percent.

Third largest segment of the proposed budget is the $70,500 officers fund based on fees in county offices and $6,500 in state funds.

In 1959, the officers fund received $29,764.01 from the general fund to meet salary requirements. The officers fund in a number of counties falls short of the necessary salary schedule, Judge Humble pointed out.

Officer fund disbursements are estimated to be $93,323.73 in the new fiscal year. This total includes salaries for elected officials, their administrative staffs and office expenses.

Other budget items are: jury fund, $11,200 and courthouse and jail fund, $15,500.

Included in the general fund disbursement proposal were major items: surplus foods distribution, $9,000; county home, $7,000; Milam County Health Unit, $14,400; and agricultural extension salaries, $7,650.

Ad valorem taxes estimated to come in total $142,600 if 100 percent of taxes are collected.

Robert Hoermann Named Agri-Agent In Hill County

Robert Hoermann, assistant Milam County agent, has been named county agent for Hill County. He has served as assistant county agent here for the past two years.

Hoermann will begin his duties in Hillsboro, county seat of Hill County, September 1.

An honor graduate of Texas A & M College, he is originally from Seguin. Two brothers are also in Extension work as county agents in Gatesville and Goliad.

County Agent J. D. Moore reviewed Hoermann's outstanding record in all phases of 4-H work and record books in announcing his assistant's promotion. Moore commended Hoermann's leadership in increasing both youth and adult participation in the county 4-H program.

Hoermann is married to the former Dorothy Plasek, of Cameron.

Right-Of-Way Being Purchased For US 77 South

County Judge Don Humble Wednesday reported that right-of-way purchases for US 77 south of Rockdale was about 25 percent complete.

The 9.2 mile stretch of new road will complete reconstruction of US 77 from Minerva to the Lee County line when finished.

Judge Humble said there were 39 parcels of land included in right-of-way negotiations, and no deadline was yet set for completion of right-of-way purchase.

He also reported new paving was scheduled for FM Rd. 485 near Buckholts, Alcoa Road near Rockdale and from the end FM Rd. 908 to FM 486. Total paving on the farm-to-market program was about 12 miles.

PILOTS CRUSADER — Capt. Micheal Moriarty, husband of the former Miss Dallis Virginia Green, Cameron, stands along side his Crusader FSU-1 at Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Calif. He is a pilot in a Marine fighter squadron there, and is a former aide-de-camp to the aircraft commanding general of the Pacific Fleet Marine Force.

Rotarians Hear Memory Expert

How good is your memory? Cameron Rotarians had their jaded a bit Wednesday by Bill Hayes, Temple business executive and author of "Your Memory", Exposition Press Inc., New York, which has sold 20,000 copies.

The memory expert gave an impressive introduction of his own system by addressing himself to every member of the Cameron civic club by name. He had memorized their names while seated at the speaker's table.

Hayes explained various systems to improve a person's use of his memory in everyday situations. He termed his system the automobile system, relating points to be remembered with parts of a car.

Introduced by program chairman, Dr. Clifford Swift, Hayes

3-Pound Infant Survives Birth

Mary Ann Brown, month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown, of Cameron, may be the smallest baby in Texas.

Born July 8, the Negro infant tipped the scales at 3 pounds. Since birth and up to a few days ago she was fed with a medicine dropper by nurses at Newton Memorial Hospital.

After several weeks of careful nursing, the child has gained back to 2 pounds, 8 ounces after losing to 2 pounds, 3 ounces. She is being fed from a premature feeder.

Hospital officials say it takes about 45 minutes for the infant to consume an ounce of milk taken every hour and a half.

"This is one of the smallest babies to live," one nurse opined.

Schedule Set For YHS Class Plans

Principal Jerald Underwood of Yoe High School, this week said that YHS students wishing to make changes in their schedules may drop by the principal's office from 9 a. m. to 12 noon between August 11 to 19, except Saturday and Sunday.

Heavy Agenda Awaits Board

A 16-point agenda awaits the Cameron School Board tonight including three committee reports, teacher recommendations and review of the amended 1959-60 budget.

The new business itinerary includes: adaption of the amended budget, setting date for 1960-61 budget hearing, review of bids for cafeteria milk and bread.

Also, hearing recommendations on hiring of teacher and auxiliary personnel, consideration of a contract with the Milam County School Board to use the vacant GI Vocational Buildings and discussion of school policies.

Dr. Earl Knebel noted that one new school bus will be delivered next Tuesday, first of seven purchased by the school district this summer.

Board business also includes selection of old buses to be kept and how the 11 unit fleet will be serviced.

Discussion will center on policies of servicing buses through bids submitted by service stations or the school's servicing its own buses by bulk purchase of gasoline and oil from consignees.

Committee reports will be made by board members on: Buildings and grounds, transportation and athletic committees.

The agenda also noted that the YHS Association reception will be held September 1 on the YHS Tennis Courts.

New Structures Abuilding In City

1st Class Set For Civil Defense Instruction Here

A Civil Defense organizational class will be held 7 p. m. Monday at the YHS Ag. Bldg., according to James Luckey, Cameron CD instructor, said today.

He invited all interested Camerons to attend the first meeting.

"We will determine the number of classes necessary to give best instruction," Luckey said. "A maximum of 25 persons per class is best for the course."

The course will consist of four weekly meetings at Y.H.S. Ag. Bldg., averaging about three hours per session.

Classes will be set up at O. J. Thomas School if colored citizens of the community indicate interest in the subject, Luckey noted.

A certificate will be presented each person completing the course on civil defense procedures. And a text book will be made available to each person attending the course.

Cornelius "Bo" Tittsworth, YHS vocational agriculture instructor will serve as Civil Defense co-ordinator for county schools, Luckey said.

Last week Mayor Coleman Duncum proclaimed August Civil Defense Preparedness Month following unanimous approval of the program by the City Council. The Cameron School Board also boosted the program in a recent meeting.

A woman's civic club, Cameron Three Arts Club, is planning a special series of articles on Civil Defense this fall.

Fish Rodeo Starts Sunrise August 21 At Alcoa's Lake

ROCKDALE — The 4th annual Alcoa Lake Fish Rodeo gets underway at sunrise August 21. The fishing competition, which is expected to attract anglers from throughout the state, will continue for eight days. It closes on August 28.

Lake concession operator Russell Wall is has announced that the contest is open to all. Fishing permits. Obtained at the concession house, will serve as entry blanks for the Rodeo. The permits are free.

Several merchandise prizes and three trophies will be awarded for top catches by men, women and children under 16.

According to contest rules, all fish caught must be weighed in at the concession house by the end of each day. The lake is open to the public from sunrise to sunset.

Judges' decisions will be made at the close of the contest.

LONE STAR FARMER DEGREE WINNER — Carroll Fuchs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fuchs of Buckholts, recently received the Lone Star Farmer Degree at the State FFA Convention held in Houston.

Maize About In Rain Slows Cotton

A shower Wednesday morning delayed the start of early cotton harvest while maize buyers reported the maize harvest about complete.

With a small percentage of maize still to be brought in, maize buyers said that earlier estimates of about two-thirds of the 1959 crop total would prove correct.

The rain this week slowed picking of early Milam County cotton. A shower threatened Milam County a week ago.

First bales have been reported at Buckholts, Thorndale, Rosebud and Cameron. First bale ginned at Farmer's Gin Co., Cameron was brought in by Joe Hromek, of Marak.

Officials at Farmer's Gin Co. reported 23 bales ginned by mid-week.

Estimates for the 1960 cotton crop range from 20,000 to 22,000 bales, about 4,000 higher than the 1959 total of about 17,500 bales.

Officials said Wednesday's rain would not hurt cotton at this time.

And Milam cotton was termed spotted, due mostly to insect infestation.

Samples of cotton already ginned have been good. Milam County has about 5,000 additional acres in cotton allotments, which accounts for higher anticipated production this fall.

"It is about time for cotton to start rolling in," one official said.

Recent high temperatures have opened cotton bolls a little ahead of time, but ginning records indicate that the season is progressing at about the same rate as last year.

NMH Fund Hits Peak $51,000

Newton Memorial Hospital's fund drive cleared the former minimum $50,000 mark this week with $51,000 reported by fund headquarters officials.

The fund headquarters office, next door to the Cameron Chamber of Commerce, was moved to the present Newton Memorial Hospital facilities this week.

Completion of the minimum goal did not end the fund drive, officials told The Herald. Though the office has been moved to the hospital, donations will still be gladly received, they added.

Construction costs have ranged an average of about $50,000 above anticipated cost of the structure, officials said.

Early estimates of the building cost ranged from $250,000 to $300,000. Total funds available under the Hill - Burton federal grant will be a minimum of $160,000.

An additional $60,000 is due from out-of-county pledges, officials have said, toward construction of the one-floor, four-wing masonry hospital. It is scheduled to have 23 beds and modern facilities are called for throughout the architect's plans.

The fund drive began in May when the headquarters was opened on S. Houston St.

Officials expressed appreciation to the contributors who pledged or gave donations. About 225 Cameron businesses and individuals gave contributions.

A total of $320,000 is expected to be spent on the structure, including funds for new equipment.

Construction bids on the building itself ranged from $313,000 to $400,000.

Bowling Lanes To Open Doors August 28 Here

The impact of a million-dollar building boom began to wear off in Cameron this week, but construction continued in some parts of the city.

Major construction note was on the Cameron Bowling Lanes which are due for opening August 28, officials said. Painting of the interior walls and fixtures was continuing this week.

An addition has been made at the rectory of St. Monica's Catholic Church.

Other construction news centered around dismantling projects prior to new construction. Workers were pulling down the old First Baptist Church and completing preliminary work on the McIntosh Dept Store building.

And Schiller Pharmacy was making preliminary plans to start remodeling work on the interior of the store.

A quick review of construction or remodeling completed in Cameron this year counted about 40 businesses that have painted, trimmed, redecorated and improved their facilities while dozens of homes have received remodeling treatment.

Work continues in the city drainage program as workmen grade out clogged gutters and complete major regrading of drainage trouble areas.

It appeared that Cameron was pausing before school opens September 1, football practice August 15 and construction starts on at least three major sites in this city.

Officials have announced that construction will begin in August on the Citizens National Bank drive-in bank, while plans are in final stages for construction of Mondrik's Minimax Supermarket.

Students Appear On Lions Program

Yoe High School students under the direction of Mrs. Richard E. Burke discussed the Publications Workshop at a Lions weekly meeting Monday.

The group of YHS students told of their experiences in the Texas A & M Workshop for high school publications.

Thirty Lions and guests attended the luncheon at The Texan.

Middle East Report . . . Part II

Jordan Impresses Writer

A. W. McGregor, Marlow Baptist Church pastor touring the Holy Land area, recounts some historic sights in the Arab countries where he is now traveling. This is the second of an exclusive series written for The Herald. — Ed.

By A. W. McGregor

TEL — AVIV, Israel — The most beautiful of the four Arab countries, — Egypt, Lebanon, Syria and Jordan — is the tiny nation of Lebanon.

During the past two weeks I have visited all of these Middle East countries.

This unique little country occupies a small strip of land at the eastern end of the Mediterranean Sea, bordered by Syria north and east. It is about 120 miles long and 30 miles wide and has a population of 1,600,000 slightly greater than that of Detroit.

Ruins abound in this country, as well as some of the famous sites of Biblical history and modern Middle East development. You find the Cedars of Lebanon, modern cities and wonderful beaches, only miles from high mountains where skiing is excellent in winter.

It is truly the Biblical "Land of Milk and Honey" with orange groves to go through the eye of a needle and olive groves, banana plantations for a rich man to enter the lions, crystal-clear rivers and beautiful wild flowers.

I was impressed with visits to Baalbeck, said to be the oldest city in the world, and to the ancient Phoenician port town of Jebail (Tyblos). Early or original inhabitants of Jebail were called Gebelites in the Bible.

Here was a city of old-world castles Lebanon's last remaining walled city of Crusader days, nestled at the side of Mount Lebanon by the Mediterranean.

From Lebanon, I went to Syria the other Arab country, which with Nassar's Egypt, comprises the United Arab Republic. Although this hot, dry, desolate country was unappealing to most of the traveling party, I found the venerable city of Damascus most interesting. It is said to be the oldest continuously inhabited city in the world.

Here I saw what some believed to be Paul's window, although I doubt the authenticity of it and the Street Called Straight. Along this street I was impressed with the numerous "needle's eye gates." These were likely the gates referred to by Jesus when He said: "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

These are openings quite small, within one door of the larger gates, left open at night for individuals, not camels, to enter the city.

Our party also saw the place where Paul was struck blind on the road to Damascus and the house of Ananias, the man whom God sent to minister to Paul in his blindness.

Next I visited the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, which, like Lebanon, is a member of the Arab League. This kingdom, ruled by King Hussein, is 37,500 square miles.

Jordan is situated in the heart of the Arab World, and bounded on the north by Syria and the west by Israel. Within Jordan's borders are some sacred shrines of Christianity: Bethlehem, birthplace of Jesus, Jericho, where so many of His miracles were performed, Hebron, where Abraham is buried, the River Jordan; the Mount of Olives; Gethsemane and the ancient city of Jerusalem, holy city of Christendom.

NEXT WEEK — Mr. McGregor will relate his impressions and experiences while visiting the Biblical scenes of the Middle East.

4-H Club Notes

By Robert W. Hoernann
Ass't Milam County Agent

4-H members and adults should begin making plans for fall and winter pasture. Temporary pastures are the most dependable sources of grazing in late fall, winter and early spring. Proper seed bed preparation and fertilization are important. Good grazing can make a tremendous difference in fall and winter feed cost.

The kind of roughage and its stage of maturity determine the amount of available protein in the feed. Late cut hay is lower in protein than early cut hay.

County Represented At Council Meet

Milam county was represented at the annual District 8 Girls 4-H Council meeting in Clifton, July 25.

LaVelle Fischer, delegate 1959-60, gave the county report. JoAnn Hollas, 1960-61 delegates, attended the afternoon session. LaNell Moraw and Mrs. Frances Johnson the county home demonstration agent, attended as visitors.

The meeting was called to order at 10 a. m. and opened with songs and prayer. Sixteen counties were present with a total of 60 delegates, officers and visitors.

Miss Noraw served as teller for the election of officers.

Soil testing cost will advance to $2.00 on September 1. In the past the cost has been one dollar per sample.

The two dollars are well spent on a soil sample analysis through correct fertilizer use and increase in crop production. Milam counties had 18 soil test made during May and June.

Frequently requests are received for methods of keeping poisonous snakes away from homes and other types of structures. There are no chemical repellents or loose poisons that are practical for this purpose.

The following suggestions may be harmful: Remove trash, discarded lumber, rocks, wood piles and other items which would be attractive as hiding places for snakes. They like trashy areas.

2. Keep weeds and grass mowed short.

3. Control rats and mice on the premises as they are attractive sources of food for snakes.

4. To prevent snakes from entering homes or buildings, seal all cracks, holes and openings of every type with lumber, screen wire or other suitable materials.

Snakes can enter nearly any small opening, from the ground up to about four feet. Houses should be tightly underpinned if snakes are a problem.

County Agents Notes

Fading Out Lawn Trouble

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Fading-out is a common summer disease of lawn grasses in all areas of Texas. It most often occurs on grasses that have suffered from lack of soil moisture in mid-summer. Fading-out is sometimes called MELTING OUT, Going out or Gray Leaf Mold.

Irregularly shaped dead areas occur in the lawn. Isolated scattered sprigs of living grass are usually found in the disease areas. Leaves die back from the tip end. Runners or stems of the grass may have small dead spots. These spots may or may not enlarge and girdle the stem. Roots may be rotted.

The disease is caused by a complex of Helminthosporium, Curvularia and Fusarium species of fungi. These soil molds are most active following a heavy rain or watering on grass that has previously been weakened by drought.

There is an indication that soil nematodes may be associated with fading-out in some cases.

Fading-out is controlled by proper management practices in the summer, zinc or captan fungicide drenches may prove helpful. Use the fungicides at the rate of 2 to 4 pounds per 100 gallons of water. Wet the grass with the solution down to the soil line. Use a sprinkler can or hose on sprayer for small areas. Apply drench right after mowing. Also, drench the healthy grass beyond the disease area to a width of several feet.

The camp program will include visits to outstanding ranches in the area as well as the Sonora Experiment Station. Ragsdale said the camp would be staffed by experienced workers in the range management field. They will come from Texas A & M College; Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Soil Conservation Service, other Texas colleges and from the ranks of county agricultural agents and vocational agricultural teachers.

The Rev. Joe Fasel from Junction will again be in charge of the religious activities of the camp which includes a vesper service each evening. His presentations have been a highlight of former camps, Ragsdale said. There will also be an organized program of recreation to go along with the

Time To Sample Soil For Crops

COLLEGE STATION — Fall planting time is not too far away, and plans should be made now. Fertilizers and lime cost money, and guesswork on how much to apply is not very efficient farming. Dr. W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, says the only way to eliminate this guessing is to have the soil tested.

The farmer must remember that soil samples are of very little value unless they truly represent the actual soil conditions of the field. Soil samples may be taken in several different ways, but Dr. Bennett says that anyone taking a sample must remember a few basic requirements. These include: Take one sample from each uniform area in the field.

A representative sample may be obtained by taking a slice of soil 4 to 5 inches deep and repeating this at 10 or 20 different places over the field.

Spade, soil augur, soil probe or garden trowel may be used to take a sample.

All of the small portions from a single field should be mixed and a composite sample taken and placed in a soil carton.

All blanks on the soil carton and information sheet should be filled out completely.

Samples should be taken early enough to insure plenty of time for testing. Soil Cartons, information sheets, mailing instructions and additional information may be obtained from the local county agent, Dr. Bennett concludes.

When parents are able to answer the children's questions it's a sign that the kids are growing up.

Annual Ranch Camp Set For A & M's Adjunct At Junction

COLLEGE STATION — The sixth annual Ranch Camp, sponsored by the Texas Section of the American Society of Range Management, will be held at the Texas A & M College Adjunct at Junction, August 14 - 20.

Bobby Ragsdale, associate extension range specialist, said 32 outstanding farm and ranch youth from every section of Texas are scheduled to answer roll call for the camp opening on Sunday afternoon, August 14. Home town or country organizations provide the camp scholarship for the boys. The campers will spend the week studying and observing good range management practices, soil and water conservation as it relates to watershed management, livestock selection, plant identification and other subjects dealing with range improvement.

The camp program will include visits to outstanding ranches in the area as well as the Sonora Experiment Station. Ragsdale said the camp would be staffed by experienced workers in the range management field. They will come from Texas A & M College; Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Soil Conservation Service, other Texas colleges and from the ranks of county agricultural agents and vocational agricultural teachers.

Milam Swine Tour To Be Held Wednesday

The annual Milam county swine tour will be held Wednesday, starting at the Post Office in Cameron at 8 a. m.

Breeding and feeding swine programs will be observed. The Sears and Farm Bureau girls will be visited during the tour.

Bring a sack lunch and some drinking water.

Strep Throat Heads July Disease List

Communicable diseases during July numbered 132 cases of streptococcal infection, 13 cases of measles, two cases of whooping cough and four cases of mumps, two cases working part of the program.

Each of the 4-H and FFA campers will prepare a notebook covering his activities during the week and outstanding campers will be recognized at the concluding camp session on Saturday morning, August 20.

The Camp, Ragsdale said, is part of the Texas Society's program for making youth more familiar with the importance of maintaining and improving the condition of ranges in the Lone Star State.

of gonorrhea and one case each of tuberculosis, syphilis and pneumonia, according to Dr. T. E. Crump, acting director of the Milam County Health Unit.

Polio immunizations in the Health Department clinics numbered 45 first shots, 24 second shots, and 17 third shots.

All tourist courts and trailer parks in the county have been inspected. All that met the standards set up by the Texas State Health Department have received approval placards.

The typical family man has a billfold full of pictures and no money.

Football Workouts To Begin Monday

Bill Bates has announced that football workouts for Yoe High prospects will begin next Monday, the 15 of August.

Bates told the Herald that the A and B squad will work out together in two workouts a day. The morning session will start at seven and last until 8. The night will run from seven to 9.

Assistant coaches, Billy Dickey and Jack Lammore, are in Cameron and will be on hand for the workouts.

Dickey will handle all backfield material. He has four years of college lettering behind him. Twice at Tyler Jr. College and at the University of Houston.

Lammore will work with the line. He has coached basketball and football and holds a BS and master's degree from North Texas State College.

The Yoemans have scrimmage games planned for the 23rd and 27th with Gonzales, Edna and Floresville.

After two weeks of twice a day practices the squad will hold once a day sessions with the Jr. High squad joining them. Harrison McClerran will be a their reins again this year.

Two Rogers Coaches Attend Dallas School

Head Coach James A. Lowrance and first assistant coach Dal Coleman were in Dallas last week attending the annual Texas Coaches Association coaching school. They remained for the north - south all - star basketball game Thursday night and the football game Friday night.

They returned to Rogers to complete arrangements for football practice which starts August 15.

MRS. KENNETH GORDON CRYER

Cryers To Make Home In Weimer

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gordon Cryer, whose marriage was solemnized Saturday in the First Methodist Church in Giddings, will make their home in Weimar. The Rev. Tom Holcum performed the nuptial rites.

Mrs. Cryer is the former Miss Nellie Gay Kieck, daughter of Judge and Mrs. M. F. Kieck of Giddings. She attended the University of Texas and Sam Houston State College. She was a member of Texas Stars and the Longhorn Band. Her sorority is Alpha Delta Pi.

A teacher in the Weimar High School, the bridegroom received a BS degree from Sam Houston State College, and also attended Texas A & M and Temple Jr. College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Cryer Sr. of Cameron.

Judge Kieck gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal wedding gown of satin faced silk organza fashioned with a basque skirt that extends into a sweep train. Appliques of alencon lace framed the sabrina neckline and enhanced the front of the organza- over - taffeta skirt. The back bustle was accented with two cabbage roses made of organza. A wreath of orange blossoms and pearls held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried an ivy entwined bouquet of white carnations.

White lace baskets, filled with white and yellow daisies and ivy, were carried by the bride's attendants, who wore white picture hats with green velvet ribbons and Kelly green silk organza dresses. The Matron of honor was Mrs. Melton Tate Jr. of Austin. The bridesmaids all of Giddings, were Miss Peggy Pierott, Mrs. Jim Bob Kriegel and Miss Becky Willard. Miss Becky Kieck was junior bridesmaid and Jenny Mae Cryer of Cameron was flower girl.

Soloists were Miss Janes Cowan and Don Deavers, accompanied by Miss Carolyn Shaw, organist.

T. Glenn Collins of Cameron was best man. Groomsmen were Nathan Wayne Colwell of Madisonville, Jimmy Hank of Cameron and Kenneth Becker of Brenham.

Luncheon Fetes Miss Rita Reid

The Western Room at the Texan was the scene of a luncheon Saturday honoring bride-elect Miss Rita Frances Reid.

Hostesses were Mrs. Tommy Estes and Mrs. Carl Hill. Mrs. Frank Reid, mother of the honoree and Mrs. Clark Hipp, the groom's mother, were special guests.

The luncheon table was decorated with an arrangement of white carnations and place cards held miniature boxes in silver holding fortunes. The hostesses presented Miss Reid with a white carnation corsage and a gift of linen.

Out of town guests were: Misses Connie Marquez, of Alice, Joan Barmore of Houston, Jane Bied of Dallas, Mrs. Neil Barr of Kilgore, and Mrs. Ralph Wallace Chambers of Irving.

Odessa Guests Given Barbecue Supper

MRS. LAMAR WAYNE GRESAK

Patricia Ann Willie Weds Lamar Gresak

Miss Patricia Ann Willie of Belaire became the bride of Lamar Wayne Gresak of Buckholts in a double ring ceremony performed at the Hope Lutheran Church of Buckholts at Sunset on July 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Willie of Belaire. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Waymond Gresak of Buckholts.

The Rev. J. A. Pietsch read the ceremony. The altar was decorated with candelabra, palms and stock. The pews were marked with bridal stain bows.

Mrs. Pietsch, organist provided the nuptial music and Max McLaren of Cameron sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a traditional formal length wedding gown of pure silk organza. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with re-embroidered alencon lace, beaded with seed pearls. Motifs of the lace was applied on the front of the skirt and insets formed a point at the end of the chapel length train. A miniature crown of pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was a white orchid with a deep purple throat surrounded by baby roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride carried out the traditional, "something old, new, borrowed, and blue". For her jewelry she wore a white seed pearl necklace and a charm bracelet, a gift of the groom.

Miss Marilyn Wukman, of Houston served as maid of honor. She wore a carnation pink silk organza dress fashioned with sabrina neckline, puff sleeves fitted at the elbow and a full skirt ending in a deep hem. She carried a bouquet of pink baby roses. Miss Barbara Ann Smith of Houston, cousin of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. She was dressed identically to that of the maid of honor and carried a bouquet of pink baby roses.

Serving the groom as best man was Stanley Glaser, cousin of the bride. Groomsmen were Tommy Lane Gresak, brother of the groom and Don Glaser of Buckholts. Ushers were Eugene Glaser of Buckholts and Donald Ray Glaser of Dallas.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Willie wore a dress of pink lace over taffeta with matching accessories. She carried a deep purple orchid on her evening bag.

The groom's mother was also dressed in pink lace, with white accessories and wore a deep purple orchid.

Reception Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Glaser, aunt and uncle of the bride, Mrs. David House of Cameron and Miss Margie Glaser of Austin registered the guests.

The brides table was laid with a cut work linen table cloth centered with a bouquet of white carnations and candelabras, and the bride and groom topping from the four tiered wedding cake.

Miss Lavelle Fischer served the cake assisted by Miss Stella Inge. The four - tiered wedding cake was decorated with pink sweetheart roses and white flowers.

Mrs. Johnnie Glaser, Mrs. Arnold Jungmann served the lime punch from a crystal punch bowl. Other crystal appointments were used.

Other houseparty members were Mrs. Arnold Glaser, Mrs. Johnnie Balusck and Mrs. George Dillon of Houston.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue silk shantung sheath dress and wore a white hat and gloves with navy shoes and bag. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of San Jacinto high school of Houston where she was a member of the marching team, the "Golden Gauchon" and a member of the student council.

The bridegroom is a 1959 graduate of Buckholts High School. After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the couple will make their home in Albuquerque, New Mexico where the groom is stationed at Kirtland Air - Force Base.

Place cards were decorated with "tux" and "evening slippers" for the twenty guests. The linen covered table was centered with a lovely arrangement of fungi mums, pal green carnations and lace fern. Soft candlelight made a setting for the party.

Rehearsal Dinner Honors Attendants Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hipp of Texarkana honored their son's wedding party with a rehearsal dinner in the Western room at the Texan Friday evening at six o'clock.

Miss Reid wore a polished floral cotton in green and blue and a green carnation corsage.

Johnson Visits Jack Kennedy

By Lyndon B. Johnson

Lady Bird and I have just come back to the ranch from three of the most exciting days of our lives and we want to share some of our experiences with you.

Aboard the plane that carried us almost 5,000 miles were thirty-eight of our friends from Texas newspapers, radio stations and television stations. Twelve of these people represented weekly papers. You would have been proud of the way they spread Texas good will everywhere we traveled.

The big turbo - prop Viscount set us down first in Kansas City. I had lunch there with the Grand Old Man of the Democratic Party - Harry Truman. He's lost none of the fire and steel of his soul that made him one of our most colorful and decisive Presidents.

Someone asked Mr. Truman what he thought of the Democratic ticket. "It's a winner for sure" he said. "What did you think of the Republican Convention, Mr. President?" another reported asked. "Worst in history," Mr. Truman replied.

The outreach of Hurricane Brenda delayed our arrival in Hyannis, Mass. for my conference with Senator Kennedy. The pilots-Captain Reuben Cagle of Blanco, Texas and First officer Jerry Dickson, of El Paso - who became the father of a new baby girl during the trip - brought us in for a perfect instrument landing when the visibility was only 175 feet.

Senator Kennedy and I sat up until 1 a. m. We talked about the program for the people we believe Congress will enact during the remaining weeks of the session the coming campaign (Senator Kennedy accepted by invitation to come to Texas and we also compared gray hairs. After the young men had gone to bed, I stayed up and worked until 3:30 a. m.

Lady Bird "took" to the Kennedys' home. It is a large, comfortable, pleasant house on Cape Cod. Jacqueline has furnished it with early American antiques and I almost didn't get Lady Bird away from her inspection tour in time for the press conference.

Before we left Saturday, Senator Kennedy and Jackie came aboard our press bus and told our folks how happy they were that Texas had sent such a fine group of men and women along on the trip.

Saturday afternoon we were in Nashville, Tennessee where we were guests of Governor and Mrs. Buford Ellington.

I spoke that night to a Democratic rally of ten thousand people and when Governor Ellington introduced me, he had to send his State Troopers out into the crowd to ask the folks to stop applauding. Governor Ellington told me that Tennessee hadn't seen a turnout like that "in a long, long time."

Every Southern state was represented and the Governors of Florida, North Carolina, Alabama, Virginia and Kentucky predicted a sweeping victory in November.

More than ten thousand people waited under the hot sun in Monticello, Iowa when we arrived there Sunday afternoon. Their enthusiasm got the best of me and I spoke for one hour - interrupted 61 times by applause. They listened attentively as I outlined the vigorous action I hope the Democratic Administration takes on the farm problem next January.

I like these folks. They're big-hearted, friendly, eager to erase barriers between people and willing to consider new ideas. I really felt at home there - especially when Lady Bird and I visited a 300 - acre farm near Monticello, in Texas - and the chocolate cake melted in my mouth.

It was a good - and productive - trip. Three very tangible results came out of it.

1) Senator Kennedy spelled out once and for all his convictions that the next Vice President will play a decisive role in Government affairs.

This is what he said in his press conference:

"We are very fortunate to have Senator Johnson's assistance in carrying out the program. If we are successful in November, I think senator Johnson can play a role as Vice President greater, more influential, and with greater benefit to the public than any Vice President in recent times."

2) Southern leaders evidenced a quality of unity unlike any we have seen for a long time. I came away from Nashville convinced that the people of this country wanted to be free Americans together before they want to be anything else, and that they wanted me to speak to them not as a Southerner to a Southerner or a Protestant to a Protestant, but as an American to an American.

3) Senator Kennedy and I cemented our relationship as running mates. There is no tension between us and we are not "poles apart" as our opponents insinuated in Chicago. Instead, we are united in a common purpose of opening the New Frontiers of America and bringing to all of our people a better life in the days ahead.

Within Driving Distance . .

We noted recently a lineup of the fifty largest cities in the United States . . and four of them are within a three hour drive of Cameron.

Not only that, but Houston, Dallas, San Antonio and Fort Worth all made tremendous strides in population gains over 1950. As a group they gained in population by 32 percent, putting the first three Texas cities in the top 20.

The biggest gain, of course, was Houston's surge from 14th to sixth largest in the U. S., gaining population from 596,163 to the 1960 total of 932,680. Dallas itself moved from 22nd to 14th in growing from 434,462 in 1950 to 672,117 in this census.

People are beginning to notice the population decline of the established cities such as New York, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis and others.

Their population losses are primarily to suburbs because they have no more room to grow. California and Southwest cities can grow because there is land yet to be annexed.

The movement to the suburbs is apparent in Texas, but the influx of people in Texas cities has offset their obvious suburban population gains.

What difference does this make to Cameron? It can mean that people will begin seeking yet further residence from the throb of city life. And towns like Cameron will draw more people seeking a quieter atmosphere.

But better yet, 2.5 millions now live within driving distance of Cameron, a natural location for distribution centers.

Another 32 percent growth factor in these four cities would mean more than 3.5 millions of people in those areas, not counting the obvious growth due in Central Texas. This would have to mean industry in this area to serve the metropolitan explosion.

It is interesting to note that only Ohio and California have more cities in the top 50 and of these, both states have cities declining in population while all of Texas' larger cities are showing gains.

This pattern would hold in most levels of city population right down to Cameron, assuming a balanced economy. Those with specialized economies will walk a perilous string between growth and lack of it.

With this kind of potential within driving distance, to and from, Cameron stands right in the middle of a fantastic story for the future.

Power-Packed Arena . . .

A unique situation is forthcoming in the current session of Congress. Three of the four top presidential and vice-presidential candidates will be in the Senate Chamber when the session reconvenes.

Holding the gavel will be Vice-President Nixon while directing the move of pre-election legislation will be Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson. In the Chamber also will be Sen. Jack Kennedy, Democratic presidential candidate.

Only one of the top runners not in the Senate is Henry Cabot Lodge, present UN delegate from the U. S. And he is in the national spotlight with Russia stirring up a fracas every time Khrushchev wants a new headline.

Having all four contenders in such a limelight occurs without precedent. The direction of presidential candidates is away from gubernatorial nominees and dependent on the voters.

indefinitely toward senatorial candidates. Lodge was a senator until recent years when Kennedy defeated him for the Massachusetts Senate seat.

The session will probably be loaded with "electionitis" if Washington press reports do not over dramatize.

The drama of the situation hardly could be overstated. Pressures will mount from both houses for legislation favorable to one group or another. And Johnson, Nixon and Kennedy will be expected to give some indication of their campaign strategy in the Senate arena.

Eisenhower is calling for moderation, asking that politics be kept out of pre-November legislation. Johnson has said no political football will be tossed during the session.

It will be interesting to see how things develop.

Needs Problems Of Old Citizens

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — How much income does an older person need to live decently during the retirement years?

Governor's Statewide Advisory Committee on Aging sought to discover this and other information in a survey on the needs and problems of Texas' older citizens.

For a couple, 43 per cent of Texas counties estimated the minimum need at $1,500 to $2,000 a year. Thirty-five per cent set the minimum at $2,000 to $2,500.

For a single elderly person, 58 per cent of the counties suggested $1,000 to $1,500 as a minimum annual income. Twenty-four per cent named a higher figure, $1,500 to $2,000.

Some 4,000 persons took part in the grass-roots, county-by-county survey. Recommendations growing out of their findings will be discussed at a conference in Austin on September 7 and 8. Out of this will come the Texas contribution to the White House Conference on Aging next January.

SURPRISE

Amid all the upped budget requests they have received lately, state officials were happily stunned when University of Texas officials asked approval to spend a comparatively pittance sum for a president's home.

UT asked to spend $40,000 to build a home for its president, Harry H. Ransom.

Last year legislative tempers blew over the $100,000-plus president's homes built by two smaller state colleges. Officials responsible for the expenditures were called on the carpet.

They said they'll use a site the University already owns, clear it with University equipment an cut material costs by using "historic" bricks from UT buildings that have been torn down.

DRIVER CURBS STUDIED

Ways to clip the wings of irresponsible drivers who carry no insurance are being studied by a committee of the Texas Legislature.

Spokesmen for the casualty insurance industry told the panel they were opposed to a compulsory insurance law. They suggested that pressure could be exerted by such measures as requiring uninsured drivers involved in accidents to put up a money deposit, revoking licenses, impounding cars, etc.

HIGHWAY LEASE PROSPECTS DIM

Chances of the state's earning money by leasing mineral rights along state roadways are not encouraging, a legislative committee found.

Committee learned from a national survey that only two oil and gas producing states get income from leasing along highway rights of way. One reported earnings of less than $100 one of $5,763.

An Attorney General's opinion recently held that the state owned mineral rights along the roadway. But State Highway Engineer C. C. Greer reported there's not much demand for highway leases.

CREDIT CARD LIQUOR SALES

Diners Club, Inc., won a court order allowing it to continue — at least temporarily — collecting for package liquor store purchases made with a credit card.

An Austin district court granted a temporary injunction halting enforcement of the Texas Liquor Control Board order prohibiting such sales.

Liquor Board contends that by becoming the collection agent for liquor store purchases, the Diners Club, is, in effect, selling liquor without a license.

Diners Club says it simply buys up the accounts of its card holders from the liquor dealers and takes responsibility for collecting. A club has contacts with package stores in nine Texas cities.

City People Should Not Take Expert's Advice To Move To The Country

Dear editor:

I was setting under my favorite shade tree out here on my Johnson grass farm the other day, the one that's lined up with two other trees spaced so accurately that as the afternoon wears on and the sun moves along, I can stay under the first tree and still be in the shade all the time without changing positions, as one tree picks up the shade from the other — it's a great peace of mind for the world — at any rate, to get on with this sentence, which is getting to be as long as a two-minute nominating speech that runs for an hour and a half. I did wake up from a nap and I was still in the shade so I pulled out a newspaper I'd been saving and fell to reading an article on advice to people thinking about changing jobs.

As it explained, a man and his wife were thinking about giving up their job and home in town and moving to a farm, and the advice columnist was tackling the problem, inside his air-conditioned office.

"My opinion," he said, "is that only a fool and his brother could expect to move from the city and operate a farm at a profit."

If my brother, who also lives on a farm, hears about this, I'll let him figure out which category he belongs in, but what bowed me over was that the columnist didn't stop there, he went on and said that despite this, "more city couples ought to try farming. This spirit is what has made the country great."

It is my opinion that this columnist has been reading too many farm-plank promises by too many political parties.

Advising a city man to move out into the country and operate a farm is about like advising a farmer to move into town and open up a super-market. It's a fine spirit, but it's not what had made this country great. It's not what has made farming boom or super-markets flourish.

Anybody in their city figuring on moving to the country to farm to make this country greater, ought to revise his standards of greatness. By leaving, he might improve the city, but he won't improve himself or farming either. What he'll do is go broke.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Good Enuf for Comstock Springs that provide 116,000,000 gallons of water per day should be good enough for anybody.

People in the Southwest Texas town of Comstock decided long ago that such springs were good enough for them, so they named them "Good Enough Springs."

The springs are located just south of Comstock, in Val Verde County, and their fine waters feed the Rio Grande River.

Famous Tree Near Rockport

You won't believe it until you see it yourself.

It's the largest live oak tree in the world, and it's located by Goose Island State Park near Rockport, in Aransas County, on the Gulf Coast.

This majestic symbol of the ages is more than 2,000 years old, having burst into life a hundred years before the birth of Christ.

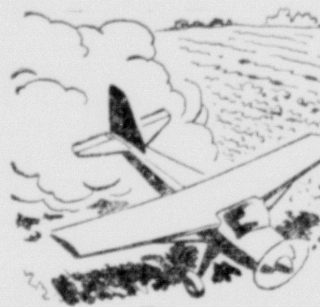

From its majestic trunk, branches spread forth 118 feet to shade the approximate area of a city block.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1960.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6 proposing an Amendment to Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten percent (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation setting maximum rates of interest; providing that the rate of interest shall not exceed six percent (6%) per annum in contracts where no interest rate is agreed upon; providing for the right of appeal and trial de novo in the event any regulatory statute enacted or action taken by the Legislature shall be held to be unconstitutional; providing for the necessary election and the form of the ballot; and providing for the necessary proclamation and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 11. The Legislature shall have authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; provided, however, in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest all contracts for a greater rate of interest than ten percent (10%) per annum shall be deemed usurious; provided, further, that in contracts where no rate of interest is agreed upon, the rate shall not exceed six percent (6%) per annum. Should any regulatory agency, acting under the provisions of this Section, cancel or refuse to grant any permit under any law passed by the Legislature, then such applicant or holder shall have the right of appeal de novo as that term is used in appeals from the justice of peace court to the county court."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1960, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten percent (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten percent (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1960.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, increasing to three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) the maximum permissible interest rate on bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation thereon.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto the following:

"The foregoing notwithstanding, bonds hereafter issued by the Veterans' Land Board pursuant to the authority of this Section 49-b of the Constitution may bear a rate or rates of interest not to exceed three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) per annum."

"This Amendment shall become effective upon its adoption."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1960, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment increasing the maximum interest rate on bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board to three and one-half percent (3 1/2%) per annum."

Outdoor In Texas ...

Unique Describes West Texas River

By Vern Sanford

Unique is a fairly common phrase in Texas. But even in unique Texas, it's the most fitting word to describe Devil's River in West Texas.

Here is a most unusual river, from the very moment it emerges as a fast - running stream in Val Verde County, until it pours its crystal - clear waters into Devil's River Lake, some meandering thirty miles away.

It's a genuine thrill to follow the swift - moving waters as Devil's River winds through the beautiful mountainous country, descending at the rate of some seven feet per mile.

Your first thought is - "This couldn't be West Texas. It's more like Colorado or Montana."

True, there are no mountains out in Devil's River. But there are plenty of catfish, perch galore, and a bountiful supply of four - pound-plus bass.

Most Texans aren't used to fishing waters of this type, in fact, they will find it difficult at first. But when they catch on - watch out.

Fly fishermen will have a run for their money, as the perch scramble for their baubles and hooks. Spin fishermen also find the perch eager for their small diving lures. Abu spinners and midget spoons.

Catfish are reputed to be abundant in these waters, but out angling endeavors a tracted none except in the lakes below the river.

But - the big bass - they are the tricky ones. These lures at stay in well protected holes, between or close by rocks and underwater ledges.

Biggest problem for the fisherman is that the rippled water is so clear that the fish can see the angler readily - and from great distances when they spot you they scatter quickly.

Actually, you have to stalk your game here, more like a hunter than a fisherman. You'll do a lot of wading too. You won't necessarily need waders, as you won't be wading in very deep water and you'll have plenty of trudging around to do. But you will need rubber - soled shoes that will give you a good footing on the smooth rocks and in the swift current.

Because of the clear water the fishermen can spot the deep holes in the water quite readily, as he walks along the bank. But, by the time you find the deep holes where the fish abound, you've spooked the fish. So, of necessity, you must know the river.

Actually one should survey the river for a few hours before fishing to locate the lunker holes. When you spot you they then, do your fishing by means of long - distance casting.

That's when the heavy lure comes in handy. You need a heavy lure that can give you the long cast.

Devil's River bass seem to prefer top - water lures above all else. Also they have their preference as to the kind of top-water attraction.

Our host for the trip, Stanton Bundy, publisher of the Devil's River News a Sonora, uses one top - water lure and only one. It has proved to be the most successful lure in this water, year in and year out, for Stanton and his fishing buddies.

It's the Bass - Oreno. The color of the lure didn't seem to make much difference. However, the green and black, frog - colored lure seemed to have a slight edge over all others. Second choice was the red and white.

As he uses only one lure, Stanton doesn't take along any tackle box.

To me, this was unique in itself.

for seldom have I seen anglers so sold on one lure - but they will use it and no other kind of brand. As one who likes to experiment, I couldn't conform to this practice. But I'll admit it catches the big ones for them.

Quite a few friends and relatives of Fred Folschinsky attended his funeral at Cameron Thursday.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

To seek or not to seek the gold of Pete the Hermit? This was my problem.

Stationed in Fort Worth was a detachment of Texas Rangers and the captain was a friend of mine. So I consulted him and he said, "There's one way to find out if there really is a treasure or if it is a practical joke and that is to go out there. If you want to go, I'll go with you - and if anybody springs anything we will see who gets surprised."

But I was working that day and then we had a spell of unfavorable weather; then the paper sent me out of town to cover the campaign of a candidate for governor and the whole matter faded from my mind.

About two years later, in clearing out my desk at the office, I came across the bulky envelope with the letter and the map. I had never received a second communication and surely I would have if the story was genuine for the man in Philadelphia would have grown impatient and would have written to urge me to act or ask when I was going to send him his two - thirds of the $13,000.

I walked to the city editor's desk in the center of the big news room the better to view the logical suspects, my colleagues. My eye (actually, both eyes, but that's the way writers write) fell upon a fellow reporter, E. D. Alexander, a solemn - faced individual who was known for his practical jokes. (Incidentally, we worked side - by - side as his desk was next to mine.) Marching to his place where he was pounding away on the typewriter, I slammed the letter down and demanded, "What do you know about this?"

He looked up and said, "So you did it?"

For two years he had wondered whether it had ever been received - but he could not ask without thereby revealing that he was the perpetrator or at least the he knew about it. We had a laugh and I told the others in the office and they were amused, too.

But that was not quite the end of the story of the treasure. The office boy ("copy boy" is the newspaper term) asked for the letter and the map as souvenirs. He took them home and one day, while he was at work, an older brother came across the documents. He did not know anything about the story and was so fascinated by the details that he went out to Mary's Creek and dug all day for the 713,000 in gold (which had never existed, either). When the Pete, Ranger's hermit (who had never existed, either). When the "copy boy" told him the facts that night, the man was very mad.

And that is my treasure experience.

IT'S GOOD FOR THE FAMILY!

Picnics like going to church should be a family affair. The sharing of the fun of a picnic brings real family understanding. It's the same sharing that is developed in the church. An universal feeling of companionship and close kinship with one great family is yours when you worship in the church of your choice.
